Dear Sir

I have a collection of old coins of European origin. As I am getting old myself I wish to provide a good home for them so my keeping the collection for so long would not be in vain. I would make them to you as a gift.

Yours respectfully

John Schaub

Dear Sir:

We have just received your letter of August 19th which, for some unknown reason, must have gotten mislaid.

As we depend almost wholly on gifts, we would be very glad to receive your very kind donation of European coins.

We beg to thank you for this exceedingly kind offer, and trust that the delay in receiving this letter will not prevent you from still offering us these coins.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
